1 WELCOME

Welcome to your new home

Welcome to your new home in Nesting, Girlsta or Wadbister. Whether you have moved from elsewhere in Shetland, returned after time away or are getting to know the islands for the first time, we hope you will enjoy living here.

This pack introduces the places and services that are useful day to day, along with opportunities to meet people and take part in local life. It covers North Nesting, South Nesting, Girlsta and Wadbister, recognising that each has its own character and connections.

We are the Community Development Company of Nesting, usually called CDCN. We work with residents and local organisations to improve facilities and support community projects across the area. Our base is the Aald Skül, the old school at Vassa in South Nesting.

We would be pleased to hear from you, whether you have a question, an idea for the area or an interest in getting involved. We hope this guide helps you settle in and discover what is on your doorstep.

With best wishes,

The CDCN team

2 GETTING TO KNOW THE AREA

Our communities

A view across Skellister: Alan Lindsay

Our communities lie on the east side of Shetland's Mainland, among croft land, lochs and coastal voes. Local life is spread across several settlements rather than gathered around a single village centre. The halls, school, shop and community hub are useful places to get your bearings.

South Nesting

South Nesting is home to many of the area's shared facilities, including Skellister Stores and Post Office, Nesting Primary School and South Nesting Public Hall. The Aald Skül at Vassa brings together the Scrapstore, gym, growing spaces and recreation area beside Benston Loch.

North Nesting

North Nesting has its own public hall and a number of small settlements. The hall provides a local focus for community activity. Getting familiar with the roads towards South Nesting and Laxo will help you plan journeys around the wider area.

Girlsta

Girlsta lies beside the A970 and Loch of Girlsta. Its main-road location connects it with Lerwick to the south and Voe and Brae to the north.

Wadbister

Wadbister is a smaller coastal community with homes spread through the surrounding countryside. It is part of the area served by CDCN. The guide's community facilities and activities are for residents across the whole area.

3 EVERYDAY ESSENTIALS

Shopping and schools

Skellister Stores and Post Office / Nesting Primary School

Shopping and local services

Skellister Stores is the local shop and Post Office. Check its Facebook page for updates and confirm opening hours before a special journey.

Skellister Stores on Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/groups/361578117291203/

For other local businesses, CDCN has a separate online directory listing trades, vehicle services, wellbeing businesses and accommodation for visiting friends and family.

CDCN local directory: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/who-we-are/our-friends

The Scrapstore at the Aald Skül is another useful stop when setting up home, with changing stocks of second-hand household goods. See section 5 for opening times.

Schools and childcare

Nesting Primary School serves P1–P7 pupils from North and South Nesting, including Dury and the south side of Laxo Voe. Contact the school on 01595 743701 or nesting@shetland.gov.uk.

Nesting Primary School: https://www.shetland.gov.uk/directory-record/1975/nesting-primary-school

Girlsta and Wadbister are within Tingwall Primary School's catchment. Families can contact tingwall@shetland.gov.uk or 01595 807244 to discuss enrolment.

For nursery and childcare arrangements, use Shetland Islands Council's Early Learning and Childcare Providers directory. It includes childminders and term-time and year-round provision. Contact providers about places and hours early enough to plan work and travel around them.

Childcare providers: https://www.shetland.gov.uk/directory/14/early-learning-and-childcare-providers

3 EVERYDAY ESSENTIALS

Healthcare and defibrillators

Healthcare

Arrange GP registration when you move. NHS Shetland lists local practices and registration information; check with the practice that it covers your address. Two useful contacts are Brae Health Centre, 01806 522543, and Lerwick Health Centre, 01595 693201.

Brae Health Centre: https://www.nhsshetland.scot/general-practice/brae-health-centre

Lerwick Health Centre: https://www.nhsshetland.scot/general-practice/lerwick-health-centre

Call 111 for NHS 24 if you need urgent care and your GP or dental practice is closed, or think you need A&E but it is not life or limb threatening. Call 999 in a life-threatening emergency.

Community defibrillators

Defibrillators are located at

- South Nesting Public Hall
- North Nesting Public Hall
- Aald Skül Community Hub

Scottish Sea Farms also lists these public-access devices with 24-hour access:

- Girlsta hatchery, ZE2 9SQ — on the exterior of the building, near the main entrance.
- Wadbister shore base, listed under Girlsta, ZE2 9SQ — on the exterior of the shore-base building.
- Dury shore base, Nesting, ZE2 9QD — on the exterior of the shore-base building.

Published locations and access details: https://scottishseafarms.com/community/where-to-find-our-defibrillators/

For a suspected cardiac arrest, call 999 immediately and follow the call handler's instructions, including advice about finding and collecting a defibrillator. This list is a guide to published locations; it does not confirm that a device is available at the time of an emergency.

Find other registered locations in advance: https://www.defibfinder.uk/

For emergencies call 999. The call handler can advise about the nearest available defibrillator; this printed list is not a live availability check.

3 EVERYDAY ESSENTIALS

Getting around by bus

Nesting Junction bus stop

The North Mainland timetable is the starting point for local bus travel. Service 19A links Lerwick with Nesting and Vidlin, including stops at Girlsta, Nesting Junction, Stendaal, Skellister and Dury. Services 21 and 23 provide main-road connections through Girlsta and Nesting Junction towards Voe and Brae.

Service 20 is a Thursday Dial-a-Ride service from Nesting and Vidlin to Brae Health Centre. Dial-a-Ride journeys run only when booked: call 01595 745745 by 4pm on the previous day, or by Friday for Sunday or Monday travel.

Use travel.shetland.org or ZetTrans's North Mainland timetable to check the outward and return journey, connections and the days a service runs. Bus disruption updates are available on 01595 745744. General transport enquiries: 01595 744868.

Journey planning: https://travel.shetland.org

Current bus timetables: https://www.zettrans.org.uk/travel/public-transport/bus

Before you travel

Check the outward and return journeys, the exact stops and whether any part of the trip needs booking. Keep a current North Mainland timetable with this pack.

3 EVERYDAY ESSENTIALS

Settling in at home

Waste and recycling

Enter your postcode in the council's collection calendar to find your rubbish and recycling dates. You can also sign up for reminders. The council's Recycling and Rubbish pages explain what goes in each bin and how to use the waste facilities. Confirm where your household's bins should be presented if the collection point is shared or away from your door.

Collection calendar: https://www.shetland.gov.uk/directory/12/collection-calendar

Broadband and mobile phones

Check broadband availability for your exact address and mobile coverage for the networks you are considering. Ofcom provides postcode checkers, but coverage predictions are a starting point: test the signal at home before relying on it for work or regular calls.

Ofcom coverage checker: https://checker.ofcom.org.uk/

Useful local tips

- Keep clear directions to your house, including its name, postcode and a recognisable landmark, ready for deliveries and visitors.
- Before arranging a day out by bus, check how you will get home and whether any leg needs booking.
- Find out how your heating works and who supplies your fuel. Keep a torch and a charged power bank somewhere easy to reach.
- Save 105 for power cuts. SSEN's free Priority Services Register offers extra support to people who need it.

Power-cut preparation and extra support: https://www.ssen.co.uk/power-cuts-emergencies/preparing-for-a-power-cut/

- Shetland Library can advise on its mobile library and home delivery service. Contact 01595 743868 or shetlandlibrary@shetland.gov.uk.

4 COMMUNITY LIFE

Your local halls

South Nesting Public Hall

South Nesting Public Hall at Skellister hosts community activities and events and can be booked for private functions. Its website has hall information, booking links and an events section. The adjacent caravan park and campsite may also be useful when friends or family visit.

South Nesting Public Hall: https://www.southnestinghall.co.uk/

North Nesting Hall

North Nesting Public Hall serves North Nesting and the surrounding area. Look for current announcements on the hall's Facebook page.

5 AALD SKÜL AND CDCN FACILITIES

Your community hub

The Aald Skül courtyard / Volunteers at the Nesting Scrapstore

The Aald Skül is CDCN's community hub at Vassa, South Nesting, ZE2 9PP. The former school and its grounds now provide places to shop, exercise, grow food and spend time outdoors. Residents from North Nesting, Girlsta and Wadbister are equally welcome to use the facilities.

Nesting Scrapstore

The Scrapstore sells affordable second-hand goods, including household items, books, tools and some furniture and building materials. Stock changes as donations arrive, making it worth a browse when you are furnishing a home or looking for something practical.

Opening times: Wednesday 1–4pm and Sunday 2–5pm. For enquiries about stock or donations, email scrapstore@cdcn.co.uk. Check its Facebook page for changes to normal opening times.

Scrapstore on Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/groups/494781631421546

You can also get involved as a volunteer. Whether you can help regularly or would like to find out what is involved, contact admin@cdcn.co.uk to discuss current opportunities at the Scrapstore.

Scrapstore information: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/what-we-offer/scrap-store

5 AALD SKÜL AND CDCN FACILITIES

Exercise, growing and outdoor space

Nesting Gym / Community growing at the Aald Skül

Nesting Gym

The volunteer-run gym is available 24 hours a day to inducted members, with sessions booked online for exclusive use. To arrange an induction, email admin@cdcn.co.uk. Booking information is on the CDCN website.

Gym information and bookings: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/what-we-offer/gym

Community growing

The Polycrubs at the Aald Skül provide sheltered growing space for local residents. See the community growing page for information, or email admin@cdcn.co.uk to discuss current opportunities and waiting-list arrangements.

Community Polycrubs: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/what-we-offer/polycrubs

Paths and the bird hide

The grounds beside Benston Loch have paths, picnic benches, seating and a bird hide. You can visit for a short walk, enjoy a picnic or watch for birds using the binoculars provided in the hide. Tree planting is adding shelter and habitat around the site.

6 ENJOYING THE OUTDOORS

Places to discover

The path to the bird hide / A standing stone in the local landscape

The area offers open views, lochs and coastal scenery alongside working crofts and small settlements. CDCN's online attractions map identifies places of interest and provides a starting point for exploring. Check the notes for each place: some have no formal paths, parking or visitor facilities.

Local attractions and map: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/who-we-are/attractions

A first local outing

The recreation area beside the Aald Skül is a useful place to begin. The paths, seating and bird hide let you spend time beside Benston Loch without planning a long outing. Take binoculars if you have them, and give wildlife space.

For trips further afield, use the attractions map to choose a place that interests you, then check access and the weather before setting out. Local place names, old buildings and the crofting landscape offer plenty to discover as you get to know the area.

Places to discover

At Skellister, the prehistoric standing stone known as the Auld Wife stands on the hillside above the junction. Catfirth has a more recent story: it was a seaplane base near the end of the First World War. Around Gletness and Eswick, the coastal roads open up views of sheltered water and small islands.

In North Nesting, the coast around Neap and Stava Ness offers further places to explore on foot. These outings involve different ground conditions and levels of effort; use a suitable map and check access before choosing a route.

Walking maps and responsible access

The council's Nesting and Lunnasting access-route maps show the short access route to Skellister Beach on page 2, with two routes at Lunning on page 1. The maps give distances, surfaces and difficulty ratings. They date from 2013, so check current access and ground conditions before setting out.

Nesting and Lunnasting access-route maps: https://www.shetland.gov.uk/downloads/file/1013/nesting-lunnasting-access-routes

Walking around Girlsta and Wadbister

For residents in Girlsta and Wadbister, the council's access-route maps and the Central Mainland visitor leaflet offer starting points for exploring the wider area. For advice on local walking options and access, contact the council's Outdoor Access Officer: outdooraccess@shetland.gov.uk or 01595 744169.

Council access-route maps: https://www.shetland.gov.uk/downloads/download/146/access-route-maps

For more walking options, the council's Core Paths page brings together an interactive map, area maps and published route amendments. Routes vary in surface and suitability; check the information for the route you choose.

Respecting the countryside

Keep gates and access tracks clear, take litter home and respect the privacy of homes. Choose clothing and footwear for the weather and ground conditions.

If you walk a dog, keep it under proper control and do not take it into fields containing lambs, calves or other young farm animals. During the bird breeding season, usually April to July, keep dogs on a short lead or close at heel in places where birds nest on the ground. The Scottish Outdoor Access Code provides fuller guidance.

7 SUPPORT AND GETTING INVOLVED

Taking part and shaping the area

Winter light at Wadbister

Keeping in touch

CDCN's website carries updates about facilities, projects and opportunities to get involved. Newsletters are available to download from the Documents page. Local halls and clubs publish their own event information; the direct links in section 4 will help you find the ones you are interested in.

CDCN news and updates: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/

Newsletters and documents: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/who-we-are/documents

CDCN membership is free. Eligible residents can apply for full membership, which includes voting rights at general meetings, approved meeting minutes and information updates. Associate membership is available to others who support CDCN's aims. Application forms are on the How to Get Involved page and can be returned to admin@cdcn.co.uk.

Membership and volunteering: https://www.cdcn.co.uk/how-to-get-involved

Volunteering and ideas

The Scrapstore welcomes enquiries about regular volunteering. CDCN also advertises occasional working days and practical tasks around the Aald Skül. Email admin@cdcn.co.uk to discuss what you would like to do, or to share an idea for a local activity or improvement.

The Community Action Plan

The Nesting, Girlsta and Wadbister Community Action Plan 2024–2034 records shared priorities identified through local consultation. It is a plan for the wider community, bringing together ideas that may involve residents, community groups, businesses, public services and other partners. It covers five themes:

- Caring for nature and making the area more environmentally sustainable.
- Protecting community facilities and improving the services people need.
- Improving transport, roads and digital connections.
- Creating more opportunities for activities and places to meet.
- Helping people take part and stay informed.

The plan includes ambitions for housing, childcare, growing and outdoor access. These are shared aspirations, rather than a commitment that CDCN will deliver every proposal. Different organisations and partners may take the lead on different priorities, with progress depending on interest, resources, funding and the decisions of those involved. CDCN can help bring people together and lead or support projects where it has a suitable role.
